

Come Away With Me: A Prayer - April 20, 2022

The noise of life drowns out the stillness of Your Voice.
Everyday, I long for time to enter our secret place.
Sacred time where I listen to Your loving whispers
And drink the Living Water that gives me life.
The Word is opened and You speak!

I reflect on the newness of "today" and receive the manna which strengthens me to face the unknown.
In even the most difficult situations, I am safe and satisfied because You are my heart.
My peace, love, and joy come from You.

And when I am pulled to perform and change into that person others desire me to be outside of Your Presence, help me to stop!

Take me back to our secret place, even for a moment, where I silently pray, my heart crying out to Yours, "Your will be done right now! Help me carry this burden. Give me Your wisdom"

You, my God, are with me.
I am Yours and You are mine.
I want to know You more, Jesus, as a bride learns more about her Groom every day.
I choose to come away with You today and each new day, forever.

Open and without shame, I love You! Reveal Your heart to me and make me completely Yours.

In Your Beloved Name, Jesus.

Amen
